

SALCOMBE TOWN COUNCIL PAY & DISPLAY CAR PARK

Salcombe Town Council's Pay & Display car park is situated as you come into the town on the Salcombe Road (A381) at the junction of Main Road and Bonfire Hill. The car park is owned by Salcombe Town Council and parking enforcement is operated by Devon County Council.

CHARGES APPLY EVERY DAY, ALL DAY, INCLUDING SUNDAYS AND BANK HOLIDAYS

South Hams District Council Permits are not valid at this car park

Penalty Charge Notices Apply for Failing to Comply with Conditions of Use

A £3 DAILY PARKING FEE is payable all day every day of the year
Tickets from Pay & Display machines

The car park is operated on a Pay & Display basis and Salcombe Town Council operates a separately charged seasonal Park & Ride bus service. The dates, times and fares for this service for 2016 will be advertised on this site once confirmed with the bus operator. They will also be advertised on the noticeboards at the Park & Ride Field and Tourist Information Office.

When there is no seasonal service from this car park it is possible to walk into town or there is a public bus service (timetable below) that runs daily and can be used for journeys to and from the town. This is a very limited service on Sundays and Public Holidays.

SALCOMBE TOWN COUNCIL PAY & DISPLAY CAR PARK

The bus stop for this service is approximately 200 metres along main Road (past the petrol station and over the brow of the hill) at the junction of Onslow Road and Main Road (known locally as Beadon Cross).
